Applying:

NL Scheme for Baseline Product Assessment , 22 July 2019

This Statement of Conformity (SoC) is part of the Deployment Advisory (DA) and is only valid if the recommendations and obligations in the DA are being followed.

The DA determines the conformity of the product with its SET and the effectiveness of the security features offered by the product.

This SoC declares that the product, when used in accordance with the DA, meets the security specification to a level sufficient to meet the requirements of the BIR.

This SoC relates only to a specific version of a product. If the product is changed, this SoC is not applicable any more. Newer versions of the products need to undergo the BSPA process anew to obtain a new Statement of Conformity.

Issuance of a SoC is no guarantee that the product is free from security vulnerabilities. Also, a SoC is not an endorsement of the IT product by NLNCSA and no warranty of the IT product by NLNCSA or by any other organisation, is either expressed or implied.
